SWINGIT CONTEST

It was a bright sunny day. Skipper the Swingit Squirrel was feeling his usual self: a lil' hyper and nutty. He decided to run outside to play on his playset. Imagine his surprise when he arrived to find…

A big huge playset in the center of his very own backyard! Skipper ran inside to tell his mother. His mother looked so surprised; they had just gotten a new Swingit playset now there is a big huge playset with three tunnel slides, eleven pumping swings, six baby swings, two tunnels, four gliders, a playhouse, and three bars to make flips on. Skippers whole family came to the family room where he and his mother were talking.

"Maybe someone decided to give it to us as a present." Said his older sister Sipa.

"Nah." Said his father, "Nobody will give us such a big playset for a present and besides, they didn't even tell us.

"It's so strange that nobody saw the people putting in the playset." His mother said.

"I have an idea" said Skipper, "Why don't we call up all the playset stores and we'll ask them if they had any costumers who made a big purchase and then, we'll call up that person and we'll ask that person why they gave it to us and the whole mystery will be over."

"What a great idea!" said Skippers family. So, Skipper's family got to work, and they called a playset store and the store said that they did not get a big purchase. So, they called the next store which was Swingit and they did not get a big purchase, but they said' "Congratulations you are our five hundredth costumer so we decided to give you a big present, a new playset."

"Wow!" said Skippers whole family, "Now our mystery is over, we know who gave this playset to us and why they did".
