

It was a bright sunny day. Skipper the Swinglt Squirrel was feeling his usual self: a lil' hyper and nutty. He decided to run outside to play on his playset. Imagine his surprise when he arrived to find.....

10 big boxes on his playset. 3 on the swings, 2 on top of the steps, 3 high up on the monkey bars and 2 sliding down the slide. He stood there staring. "What are all these boxes?" He decided to try and open the boxes. He climbed up to a box on top of the monkey bars that said Acorn on it. Out jumped his good friend Acorn Squirrel. "Happy Birthday Skipper". He gave Skipper a piece of birthday cake. All of a sudden, a loud noise came from the boxes. Boom! All his friends jumped out of the boxes! "Happy Birthday Skipper" They each handed him a piece of cake which made a birthday cake puzzle. Then he ate it all up! "Now it's time to play on the playset with everyone. First, we need to clean up all the boxes" They all made a line by the ladder to the monkey bars. They climbed up one at a time and stood on top of the monkey bars. Then, they jumped on to the poles and slid down to the ground. Then, they each grabbed a swing and swung as high as they could. It was so much fun! Next, they all climbed up the ladder to the slide and slid down in a train with Skipper at the front. Then it was time for everyone to go home. Yippy! Hurray! What a fun birthday surprise!
