

It was a bright sunny day. Skipper the Swinglt Squirrel was feeling his usual self a lil' hyper and nutty. He decided to run outside to play on his playset. Imagine his surprise when he arrived to find....

a bottle stuck in the ground. He went to his house, got a spade, and dug it out. He opened the bottle and saw a treasure map.

As he was walking home, he decided to find the treasure as he had been in isolation for a few weeks due to the virus.

He packed his bags and headed to the Himalayas where the treasure map started. He couldn't stop thinking about how rich he would be when he finds the treasure.

On the plane Skipper was sitting next to his friend Ben who asked him "what are you going to do in the Himalayas?" "I'm going on a treasure hunt" he replied.

When he arrived, it was a really hot day. He got off the plane and headed to the hotel and soon went straight to his treasure hunt. He went in forests up mountains and across rivers. He finally came to the highest mountain in the world - Mount Everest! The treasure was at the top and no squirrel had ever climbed it before.

It was rather chilly and he was scared! If he climbs it though he would be famous and rich

He started climbing the mountain and after many long days, reached the top. The first thing he did was he took a flag with a picture of him on it and planted it on top. Next, he started digging and then he finally he found the treasure he opened it and it was full of gold and diamonds and jewellery.

He struggled down the mountain and eventually managed to take his treasure back home. He was now rich, famous and the Queen of England even knighted him Sir Squirrel of Everest!
