

Swingset Contest

It was a bright and sunny day. Skipper the Swingset Squirrel was feeling his usual self: a lil' hyper and nutty. He decided to run outside to the play on his playset. Imagine his surprise when he arrived to find...the swingset manager with the other men! They stood there looking unhappy. Skipper was so confused! Skipper went over to them and asked “Why are you all here?” They all answered at the same time “We have very bad news!” Skipper said “what is the very bad news?” they said “ we posted that we can help you fix your swing set, and all of the sudden we got 12 calls from people that their swing set needed to be fixed!” a lot of people swing sets were very damaged. We realized people were coming around and damaging their swing sets! We called the police and they spied at night by someone's house and found the bad people that were damaging the swing sets! The police took them away and they took them to jail and the swingset company fixed everything and everyone was happy ever after!!
