

It was a bright sunny day. Skipper the Swingit Squirrel was feeling his usual self: a lil' hyper and nutty. He decided to run outside to play on his playset. Imagine his surprise when he arrived to find... an unexpected bag sitting on the slide! Skipper peeked inside. It was full of sand! He knew his birthday was soon, but he still had no idea where the sand came from. He ran to his room, pushed the bag under his bed, and had a good night's sleep. In the morning, Skipper almost forgot about the strange happenings of the day before. That was until he saw on his playset, another bag, and in it was a swingit slide! Now he was very confused. He kept the second bag in his closet and went on with the day. Skipper got up the next morning and went straight to his playset, and sure enough, there was a third bag with two swingit swings! This could not be kept a secret any longer. He ran to his sister and told her what happened. But Skipper's sister just gave him a mischievous smile. Right then, Skipper was the most confused squirrel in the whole swingit world! Then, he had a plan. He was going to bring his tent and watch the playset the whole night. So Skipper set up his tent and put his sleeping bag, pillow, and stuffed animals in it. In the middle of the night, there was a shadow coming near the tent. At first, Skipper was scared, but then he got his courage and shined a flashlight on the person's face. It was his father, and right behind, came his whole family! They handed him a fourth bag and shouted "Happy Birthday!" Skipper opened the bag and there was a swingit ball pit! Finally, Skipper knew what was going on. His family bought him a new swingit playset for his birthday! Everyone went to sleep and put the playset together the next morning. That was the best birthday for Skipper.
